

Terms and Conditions – Young People’s Classes

Fees are due in advance of each term. Invoices will be distributed towards the end of every term and payments should be settled by the date provided. Unfortunately, payment by the class is not allowed and no refunds can be made for missed lessons.

Students are required within 6 weeks of joining the school to attend class in the appropriate uniform for their class. Details are provided in this welcome pack.

It is necessary at times for a dance teacher to place their hands upon pupils to physically help them into a correct position or movement. If parents or carers object to this method of teaching they should inform the Principal immediately as it is probable that The Dance Shed will not be able to teach those pupils.

The Principal cannot accept responsibility for the loss or damage to any articles left on the premises.

The Principal reserves the right to alter the rules and conditions of the school.

The Principal reserves the right to alter the price and times of classes with half a term’s notice to parents.

Occasionally, The Dance Shed may require pictures for the website, The Dance Shed Facebook page or promotional brochures. If you have any objections to this please inform the Principal immediately.

Should we be forced into lockdown once again classes will be offered via Zoom and therefore no refunds will be made.
